FARMERS
TRY THE
Star Bone Phosphate.

TO all agriculturists, therefore, who are in search of an active and permanent manure, and who may have the claims of this article presented to their notice for the first time, the manufacturers would suggest, that the

is worthy of their experimental trial, at least; past experience warranting the fullest confidence, that after a trial they will add their testimony to that of hundreds of farmers who now regard it as the cheapest and best manure in the market.

THE AMMONIA

is supplied abundantly from the organic portion of the bone.

PRICE $55 PER TON IN BAGS.

A Word to the Wise!
HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!
Renner's Chemical Fertilizer!

THE importance of a quick, active and durable Fertilizer, adapted to the soil of our county, is acknowledged by all Farmers. Having satisfied myself, after long study and careful experiment, that F. C. RENNER'S surpasses all others in adaptedness to all kinds of soil, I have purchased the right for Adams county, and am prepared to fill orders for it promptly and on reasonable terms. It is no humbug, but

Chemical Fertilizer

HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY TRIED

by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $50 per ton without bags, or $55 in bags. This fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER is to introduce a fertilizer that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient animal matter to mature the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufacture a large supply this winter for the spring crops, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

NO BABY IN THE HOUSE.

The following little poem, which has been going the rounds of the press without credit, was written, it is said, by Miss Clara Dolliver, while a school girl in San Francisco:

No baby in the house, I know—
'Tis far too nice and clean;
No toys by careless fingers strewn
Upon the floors are seen.
No finger marks are on the panes,
No scratches on the chairs,
No wooden men set up in rows,
Or marshaled off in pairs;
No little stockings to be darned,
All ragged at the toes;
No pile of mending to be done,
Made up of baby clothes;
No little troubles to be soothed,
No little hands to fold,
No grimy fingers to be washed,
No stories to be told;
No tender kiss to be given,
No nicknames, "Glove" and "Mouse;"
No merry frolics after tea—
No baby in the house.

ACROSTIC.

Steady and bright as a planet of light,
To point out the pathway of duty;
A defender of all that is noble and right;
Reflecting, resplendent thy beauty—

Attacking whatever is wilful and wrong—
Never fearing to speak with fearless tongue—
Defending the aged, instructing the young.

So fixed be thy purpose where honor lies
Ever scanning her ramparts with eagle eyes,

Nor turning away from the altar of truth,
That will guide thee as safely in age as in youth,
Interested in all that is good, that is great;
Nobly upholding our flag and the State;
Ever true, ever faithful and true to the last—
Let a record of truth prove thy present and past.

MODESTY.

The expressions of the man of modesty imparteth a beauteous lustre to his words, which atoneth for all error and embarrassment under which he may labor.

How truly amiable is this quality even in man, how indispensable in woman. Unlike the proud subject of arrogancy and self-conceit, whose bread and meat consisteth in the flattery of interested and deceitful sycophants; whose mind delighteth to dwell upon his own greatness. Dissimilar to such, is the man of unassuming manners. Disclaiming sole and presumptuous reliance upon his own wisdom, he meekly listeneth to, and weigheth the advice of a friend, and is the recipient of the benefits thereof. And when from an honest conviction of his unvarnished merits, some one, enamored of the loveliness of his character, extols his worth; he, with true dignity, turneth away from his own praise, and refuseth to accept the proffered homage. His own perfections never reveal themselves to his gaze; but are submerged in his consciousness of personal defects.

As woman, (than whom nothing excites in the bosom of man more enraptured sensations of delight,) appeareth more exceedingly lovely, when the blushing sweetness of her smiling face is faintly obscured behind the delicate drapery of her flowing veil: So are the excellencies and beauties of human character—heightened by the transparent shade which unaffected modesty casteth over them.

A CERTAIN eminent judge in Georgia was very appropriately "taken down," by one of his audience during a political address.—He was a candidate for Governor of his State, and was explaining to a large crowd how his friends had pressed him to be a candidate, and that the office was seeking him, and that he was not seeking the office. "In fact," exclaimed he, "the office of Governor has been following me for the last ten years!" Just then a tall countryman in the audience arose and shouted: "But here's yer consolation, judge: You're gaining on it all the time, and it will never catch you!" The prohecy was literally fulfilled.

FIFTY years ago there was not a silk manufactory in the country. Now there are upwards of sixty large establishments engaged in the business. Connecticut leads in the manufacture, next New Jersey, but the probabilities are that California will overtake and lead all the other States. A single establishment in that State has 60,000 mulberry trees growing, and forty Chinese families, skilled in the culture of silk, are employed to attend to the business.

A YOUNG man from the country went into a drug store the other day, and seeing people freely patronizing the soda fountain at length stepped up and called for a drink of "that 'ere" for himself. After swallowing the foaming contents of the glass, and paying his money with a satisfied air upon the counter, he said: "Mister, what do you call thas this bites so?" "That is soda water." "Wall," said he, "I s'posed it was sweetened wind."

THE ALPINE BRIDGE.

A little Swiss peasant girl lived with her parents on the side of one of their lofty and beautiful mountains. A deep chasm separated this from the neighboring mountains, which could only be crossed by a narrow and picturesque bridge built of stone. The little girl, whose name was Jeannette, had learned to love and serve her Saviour, for her mother was a good woman and had tried to teach her little daughter all she knew of his wondrous love in coming down to our little world to die for us. She knew how to read, and had a Bible; and though Jeannette was but eight years old, she had heard or read almost the whole of it and had learned some of the great lessons which it teaches. Not that she was by any means perfect, for she was often tempted to do wrong; but she loved her father and mother dearly, and her Saviour more than all else beside.

She often played around the cottage door, and amused herself by running back and forth across the bridge which was some distance from the house. One bright morning in spring her mother said to her, "Jeannette, I do not wish you to run across the bridge to day; there is a stone loose in the middle of it, and should you put your foot on that stone it might fall and carry you with it into the chasm, and you would be dashed in pieces." The little girl promised not to step on the bridge, and ran gleefully away to gather wild flowers, which grow in great profusion on those mountains. Beautiful hyacinths and other flowers, which we cultivate in our gardens, grow wild there. She played very happily, singing softly to herself snatches of quaint old hymns which her mother had taught her, and often gazing up into the bright blue sky, which seemed to smile down upon the lonely child. I should not call her lonely, for the flowers and her own dear mountains were her friends and companions; and she thought if she could only climb to the top of one of the highest, whose snow capped peaks seemed to pierce the clouds, she might look right into heaven, where she was sure she could see her dear old grandmother and little baby brother, who had died only one short year before. She wandered on, thinking so busily that she came quite near the bridge before seeing it.

Just at that moment she saw her father coming toward her, and found that he intended crossing the bridge! "Father," said she earnestly, "mother says the bridge is broken, and it will fall if you step on it." "Nonsense, child," said he. "It is quite safe. I'm not afraid; I must go to my work." "Oh don't, please don't step on it; it will break, I know it will." But the father laughed and persisted that there was no danger. The little girl, almost wild with distress, cried, "Father! father! stop and promise me one thing: if I die, won't you love the Saviour?" He was surprised, but at last said, "You foolish child, you are not going to die!" "But if I do die, won't you promise? won't you, father?"—At last, to get rid of her, he promised. No sooner had she heard the promise, than she rushed past him and ran on to the bridge. As soon as her foot pressed the loosened stone it gave way, and that part of the bridge fell into the yawning chasm, carrying the brave little girl with it; while the poor father stood safe, but overwhelmed with sorrow at the loss of his dear little girl. He now saw that his little daughter knew that he was not fit to die, and so chose to die in his stead; and he also remembered his promise, and solemnly resolved to love and serve her Master, who gave His life a ransom for many.

A GOOD STORY.

A very amusing anecdote is told of an Irishman who happened to be in Paris a short time ago, while three crowned heads of Europe were there on a visit to his Imperial Majesty, Napoleon. The distinguished persons were the Emperors of Russia and Austria, and the King of Prussia. One day, having thrown aside all state ceremonial, they determined to see the sights of the beautiful city on the Seine, for their own delectation, and for that purpose they resolved to go incog., so as not to be recognized by the people. However, in their stroll through Paris they went astray, and meeting a gentlemanly looking person who happened to be an Irishman, they politely asked him if he would kindly directed them to the Palais Royal.

"Faith, and that I will, my boys," says Pat, at the same time taking a mental photograph of the three "boys." "This way, my hearties," and so they were conducted to the gates of the Royal Palace, and the Irishman was about bidding them farewell, when the Emperor of Russia, interested and pleased as much by the genuine politeness of Pat (and what son of Erin was ever yet deficient in courtesy and politeness), as by his naivette and witty remarks, asked him who he was.

"Well," rejoined their guide, "I did not ask who you were, and before I answer you, perhaps you would tell me who you may be?"

After some further parleying, one said, "I am Alexander, and they call me the Czar or Emperor of all the Russias."

"Indeed," said Pat, with a roguish twinkle in the corner of his eye, and an incredulous nod of the head (as much as to say, "This boy is up to codding me a bit,") "And might I make bould to ask who you be, my flower?"

"They call me Francis Joseph, the Emperor of Austria."

"Most happy to make your acquaintance, Frank, my boy," says the Irishman, who thinking he was hoaxed, and in his despairing efforts to get the truth, as he conceived, out of any of them, turned to the third one, and said, "Who are you?"

"They call me Frederick William, and I am king of Prussia."

They then reminded him that he promised to tell them who he was, and after some hesitation, and with a mysterious air of confidence, Pat, putting his hand to his mouth, whispered—

"I am the Emperor of China; but don't tell anybody."

WAYS OF COMMITTING SUICIDE.—Wearing thin shoes on damp nights in rainy weather.

Building on the "air-tight" principle.

Leading a life of enfeebling stupid laziness, and keeping the mind in a round of unnatural excitement by reading trashy novels.

Allowing love of gain to so absorb our minds as to leave no time to attend to our health.

REGISTRY LAW.

AN ACT

Further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has received from the county commissioners under the eight section of the act of 15th April, 1834, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same, by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessment, or whose removal into the same shall be or shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him, to be qualified voters therein. As soon as this revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in the district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so to take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain, by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of this work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen, above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper; and if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also, the occupation of the person; and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor unless he has been for five consective years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him and the amounts assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners, who shall immediately add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall, prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name "C. V.;" and immediately assess him with a tax, noting, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designing to be, marking in all such cases the letters, opposite the name, "N." or "D. I.," as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuining election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides, and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners, in all cases in which a return is required from him by the the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns, shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by him by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township or precinct, on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, [illegible] shall make proof of his right to vote as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claimes to be a voter, for the period of at least ten days next preceeding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein and has moved thereform, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when and where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination; unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and suberibe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States, (or born elsewhere, shall state that fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization); and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are; if the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively, on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such persons; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consecutively, a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted" with month and year: and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending, shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted on conviction of the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the indorsement required as aforesaid on naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such persons to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceeding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessor to attend at the place fixed by law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of such persons thereto as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess them with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be pursued, in all respects, as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general elections in October. The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner in all respects as is required at the general election in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations shall apply at every special election, and at every separate city, borough or ward election, in all respects, as at the general elections in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the election shall each have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers, shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of the other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday of October, in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held, in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county to act as overseers of said election; said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election, during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses, under oath, in regard to his right to suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such an election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election: Provided, That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or give out, or cause to permit the same to be given out, in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof, according to the act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any one shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, or shall vote, or attempt to vote thereon, or if any one shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. Any person who on oath or affirmation, in or before any court in this State, or officer authorized to administer oaths shall, to procure a certificate of naturalization, for himself or any other person, wilfully depose, declare or affirm any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter to be fact, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such deposition, declaration or affirmation, shall be null and void; and it shall be the duty of the court issuing the same, upon proof being made before it that it was fraudulently obtained, to take immediate measures for recalling the same for cancellation; and any person who shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any paper so obtained, or who shall in any way aid in, connive at, or have any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, and pay a fine, not more than one thousand dollars, for every such offense, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 14. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars; and if any assessor shall assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or shall refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by fine or imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy, any list of voters, made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischevious intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 15. All elections for city, ward, borough, township and election officers shall hereafter be held on the second Tuesday of October, subject to all the provisions of the laws regulating the election of such officers not inconsistent with this act; the persons elected to such offices at that time shall take their places at the expiration of the terms of the persons holding the same at the time of such election; but no election for the office of assessor or assistant assessor shall be held, under this act, until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

SEC. 16. At all elections hereafter held, under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock A. M., and closed at seven o'clock P. M.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to prepare forms for all the blanks made necessary by this act, and furnish copies of the same to the county Commissioners of the several counties of the Commonwealth; and the county Commissioners of each county shall, as soon as may be necessary after receipt of the same, at the proper expense of the county, procure and furnish all the election officers of the election districts of their respective counties copies of such blanks, in such quantities as may be rendered necessary for the discharge of their duties under this act.

SEC. 18. None of the forgoing provisions of this act shall apply to the city of Philadelphia, excepting section twelve and thirteen.

SEC. 19. That citizens of this State temporarily in the service of the United States governments, on clerical or other duty, and who do not vote where thus employed, shall not be thereby deprived of the right to vote in their several election districts if otherwise duly qualified.

SEC. 20. The act entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April fourth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight, and other laws altered or supplied by this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

THE Copperheads are to be pitied.—Since the surrender of Lee and the collapse of the Rebellion, everything has gone wrong in national, state and municipal affairs—nothing right. From the election of President of the United States down to County Superintendent of Common Schools, we have nothing but grumbling, scolding and fault-finding. With the collapse of the Rebellion has come a collapse of "the nigger in the wood-pile," and hence the "onesiness" of the Copperhead tribe. As Nasby has it, "in addishen to the other calamities, they hev bin, or are about bein, deprived uv the nigger, which hez bin their cheef and best holt." Politically they are dead, crushed amid the ruins of the Slaveholder's Rebellion; "the shadders is closing round and their nite is at hand." We do sympathize with them, but guess they richly deserve their fate.

Our neighbor of the Compiler is deeply infected by the saddening influences pressing on the whole tribe, and weekly pours out his lamentations and jeremiads over the wickedness and waywardness of the times. The latest occasion for grumbling is the recent election of County Superintendent, which we find in a half column of mingled misstatement of fact and bitter denunciation of the Convention, evidently inspired by the defeated aspirant for the Superintendency. The Compiler is simply mistaken in point of fact, when it states that "D. A. BUEHLER contended that there was a special borough law allowing the admission" of the Directors of York Springs Borough. Mr. SHEELY sought to exclude the York Springs Directors, and, although not a member of the Convention, made a speech against their admission, reading from the School law and decisions of the State Superintendent as to the status of Directors from special or independent School districts created under the School law. Mr. BUEHLER simply explained that the law and decisions thus quoted did not apply to York Springs Borough, as it had not been made a corporation or separate School district under the School law, but by virtue of a special decree of Court under the General Borough Act. The Convention saw fit to overrule Mr. SHEELY and his law, preferring to accept the ruling of State Superintendent WICKERSHAM, and ordered the names of the York Springs Directors to be enrolled, some of the Democratic Directors so voting, because of their unwillingness to violate the law, even to further partizan purposes. This is the whole of it, except that subsequently Mr. SHEELY, in addressing the Convention on the subject of salary, made a bitter and entirely uncalled for attack on State Superintendent WICKERSHAM—whether because of chagrine at the latter's ruling in the York Springs case, or the natural cropping out of bitter partisanship, matters little. Although a good bid for the votes of Democratic Directors, it was not calculated to win Republican votes.

The truth is, that Mr. SHEELY's administration of the County Superintendency has not been acceptable.—There has been a growing dissatisfaction, and in no direction more decided than in Democratic Districts. Hence the reluctance of Democratic Directors to attend the Convention, and the small turn out. Of those who did come, it was well known that a number were hostile to Mr. SHEELY's re-election. But the manipulation of party leaders brought most of them up to the rack, Mr. KELLY and other Democratic competitors being backed off the course. Some two or three, however, refused to be whipped in and voted squarely for Mr. WERT.

If there be anything in this statement unpleasant to the late County Superintendent, he will regard himself under obligations to the Compiler and his own imprudence. The attack on Mr. WERT, and the attempt to cripple his usefulness in official position, by poisoning the minds of Democratic Directors with gloomy forebodings of the inevitable "nigger," are ungenerous and simply betray the keenness of disappointment in the result of the election. Mr. WERT is a gentleman of scholarly attainments, a practical educator, and to say the least the peer of Mr. SHEELY in every requisite for a capable and efficient County Superintendent. So the Convention regarded him, and hence gave him their suffrages. We believe that he will discharge his duties fairly and honestly, eschewing political partizanship, and subordinating selfish purposes to the public good.

Now that Slavery has ceased to be a power in the world, old Slaveholders are willing to admit the truth about the American branch of the infernal system. From a recent number of the Washington Star, which is edited by a born-and-bred Slaveholder, we clip the following:

> "The alleged decrease of the actual number of negroes since the war, through the loss of the patriarchal institution for their welfare (and all that sort of nonsense), will be found to have amounted to no decrease whatever. They have been better fed, better clothed, and better housed since the war than ever before, I apprehend, and where existing in greater numbers have almost entirely escaped what was previously a cause of the annual destruction of thousands on thousands of their children under one year old. I refer to the practice of overworking mothers who had infants, in cotton and sugar fields. I have personally known plantations on which for a series of years seventy-five per centum of the natural increase of the negroes were literally murdered after that fashion; it being the received theory of profitable planting; under slavery's rule, that it was cheaper to buy able hands from the Eastern and Northern slaveholding States than to raise them."

IT IS hard to please the Copperheads. One would have supposed that the Act passed by the Legislature to abolish the Spring elections and combine them with the October elections—thus saving a heavy drain on the county treasury and saving the excitement and loss of time incident to two elections in a year—would be popular with all classes. But our Copperheads have become so accustomed to fault-finding and grumbling, that even this salutary reform is bitterly denounced as a "violent change," and another instance of "careless and hasty" legislation. Well, we think the tax-payers will approve it at any rate, if Copperhead politicians don't.

THE Legislatures of Indiana and New York have passed bills transferring to the U. S. Government the interests of those States in the Gettysburg National Cemetery. The other States will doubtless concur, and the control of this and Antietam will properly pass to Uncle Sam.

THE NEW REGISTRY LAW.

We give in full on our first page the new Registry Law, excepting that portion which applies exclusively to Philadelphia—the provisions for that city being more stringent than those for the balance of the State. The Act is an important one and should be carefully studied by every citizen. It seems to be carefully drawn, and made sufficiently stringent to guard the purity of the ballot-box, without unnecessarily burdening legal voters. Of course a regular howl will go up from the domain of Copperheadism, which thrives best amid the slime of corruption, and dreads nothing so much as a pure ballot. All good citizens, however, who appreciate the privileges of the elective franchise and do not care to have this highest political prerogative of the freeman stricken down by a recurrence of the wholesale frauds which were perpetrated at the last October and November elections, will cheerfully submit to the inconveniences attending a Registry Law, and will aid in its enforcement. While the law should, and doubtless will be, read in full, we annex a brief abstract of its more important provisions.

Sect. 1—Prescribes the duties of Assessors, who in June are to take charge of the transcript of voters furnished by the county commissioners and correct the same, by striking therefrom all who have died or removed and adding the names of new voters. The Assessor then makes out an alphabetical copy of the corrected list, showing the name, residence and occupation of each voter—marking those who vote on age, naturalization, &c.

Sec. 2—The corrected list being returned to the Commissioners, they are to cause duplicates thereof to be made out, and given to the Assessor, who shall, prior to Aug. 1, post one on the door of the house where the election is to be held, retaining the other for the inspection of citizens, and for further corrections and additions.

Sec. 3—The assessments being completed up to the tenth day preceding the October election, on the following Monday the Assessor makes a return of the revised list to the Commissioners, who hand the same to the election officers on or before six o'clock on the morning of the election.

Sec. 4—The proof requisite to enable persons to vote, whose names have been accidentally omitted, is prescribed, being carefully guarded to prevent double voting, voting on assumed names, false residence, &c.

Sec. 5—Challenges of voters are to be permitted as heretofore, whether the name be on the Registry or not, and penalities are prescribed for fraudulent voting and fraudulent reception of votes by election officers.

Sec. 6—Election officers refusing to require proof in cases of challenged votes to be liable to prosecution, with a fine not exceeding $100 and imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Sec. 7 and 8—Provision is made for a revision and correction of the lists for Presidential elections, and Special elections.

Sec. 9 and 10—Have reference to the duties and compensation of Assessors.

Sec. 11—When five or more citizens apply by petition, under oath, to the Court of Common Pleas, representing that they believe frauds will be practised in an election district, the Court are to appoint two sober, intelligent citizens to act as overseers at said election, to be selected from different political parties where the inspectors belong to different parties; but when both the inspectors are of the same party, both overseers are to be taken from the opposite party. These overseers are to have the right to be present during the whole of the election and the counting of the ballots, to challenge voters, and if the election officers permit them to be intimidated or driven away, all the votes polled at such district may be rejected.

Sec. 12—The issue or use of fraudulent naturalization papers are to be punished by fine not exceeding $1,000, and imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years.

Sec. 13—Persons making false oaths to procure the issue of naturalization papers to be guilty of perjury, and certificates thus procured are to be recalled and cancelled.

Sec. 14—Assessors neglecting their duties, as also the fraudulent altering of lists of voters, to be punished by fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 15—Spring elections are abolished, and all city, ward, borough, and township elections to be held on the second Tuesday of October.

Sec. 16—Polls to be opened between 6 and 7 A. M., and closed at 7 P. M.

Sec. 17—The Secretary of the Commonwealth to furnish blank forms to County Commissioners, and the latter to election officers.

Sec. 18—Philadelphia having a special act, only sections 12 and 13 of this act to apply to that city.

Sec. 19—Citizens of the State temporarily in the service of the State or U. States governments, who do not vote where thus employed, are not be deprived of their right to vote in their several election districts, if otherwise qualified.

Sec. 20—The provisions of former election laws inconsistent herewith are repealed.

We are indebted to Hon. FRANCIS JORDAN, Secretary of State, for an advance copy of the pamphlet edition of the General Laws enacted by the last Legislature. No. 38—Is the General Registry Law, which will be found in full in to-day's paper.

No. 44—Exempts all Sewing Machines belonging to seamstresses from levy and sale on execution or distress for rent, in addition to property now exempt by law.

No. 50—Provides that, on the affidavit of any creditable witness that a building or other property has been set on fire maliciously, or burned from an unknown cause, any Justice of the Peace, Mayor or Alderman, of the borough, township, or district in which the fire took place, may, at the request of any citizen, or officer of insurance company having a policy on the building destroyed, proceed to investigate the origin and cause of the fire, summons a jury and compel the attendance of witnesses. The jury are to make a return to the proper officer of the facts developed by the investigation. If the jury find that the same was set on fire, the officer shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the guilty party and bind over the witnesses to testify at Court. The costs of magistrates, jurors and witnesses to be the same as in cases of coroner's inquests, and shall be paid by the party at whose instance the proceedings were commenced, when the inquest shall not find sufficient course to bind over any person; otherwise the costs to abide the issue of the prosecution in Court as in other cases.

No. 56—Gives Councils of cities and boroughs the power to provide for the inspection of milk, under such rules and regulations as will protect the people from adulteration and dilution of the same.

No. 60—Is the new Game Law, which was given in full last week.

No. 66—Creates a Board of Charities, consisting of five persons, to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, to hold office for five years, but the first appointees to be so allotted as to have one go out of office each year, their successors to be appointed for five years.—They are to be sworn, organize by the election of a President, Secretary and Agent, adopt rules and regulations, and be provided with suitable rooms in the State Capitol. Their business will be, by themselves or Agent, to visit all the charitable and correctional institutions of the State, Prisons, Almshouses, &c., examine into their condition and management, and make report to the Legislature. The Agent to receive a salary of $3,000 and travelling expenses—the Commissioners to receive nothing but actual travelling expenses. Keepers of prisons, almshouses, charitable and correctional institutions, are required to furnish every facility to the Agent and Commissioners in their visitations and examinations. If competent and judicious persons are appointed to carry out the provisions of this act, it will prove to be an important reformatory measure.

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

The public will remember Mr. STEVENS' letter in the fall of 1867, on general politics, and especially the question of Suffrage, soon to be permanently settled by the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. The views of Mr. STEVENS attracted attention all over the country, and were largely instrumental in creating the public sentiment which is now demanding a radical adjustment of this long controversy.

We have recently come into possession of the correspondence which preceded the publication of this letter, with one of our venerable citizens, who was among Mr. S's most steadfast friends in fighting the glorious battle of Republicanism and equal rights—Dr. M. D. G. PFEIFFER, of New Oxford. As a matter of public as well as personal interest, we append it:

1.—FROM MR. STEVENS.

LANCASTER, Oct. 14th, 1867.

DEAR DOCTOR:—I have been trying some way to attract public attention to some political remarks which I am about to make. I can think of no way so effective as an odd one, and no odd way so handy just now as the ancient way of dialogue as used by Socrates and his compeers, and I can think of no one so agreeable to me as one of the interlocutors, as Dr. Pfeiffer.

Of course you will be responsible for nothing that is written, as the public will well understand. If so, please give your assent by return mail, and if well enough I will send you on the first instalment at once. After that the formality of transmission may be dispensed with. The first No. will be a sample of the whole.

Yours &c.,
THADDEUS STEVENS.

DR. PFEIFFER.

2.—FROM MR. STEVENS.

LANCASTER, Oct. 14th, 1867.

DEAR DOCTOR:—Please return this manuscript as soon as you find it convenient, with such remarks as you think proper.—Always understanding that you are in no wise responsible for anything except the use of your name, of which I feel proud. I am Yours very truly
THADDEUS STEVENS.

3.—FROM MR. STEVENS.

LANCASTER, Oct. 18th, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—A week ago I wrote to you, enclosing a manuscript package, which I requested you, whether you approved or not, to return as soon as convenient. I have received no reply. I hope it was not offensive. Its delay has caused me some inconvenience, and if convenient I wish you would enclose it to me with or without your approbation.

Yours very truly,
THADDEUS STEVENS.

To DR. PFEIFFER.

4.—FROM DR. PFEIFFER.

NEW OXFORD, ADAMS CO., PA.
Oct. 23rd, 1868.

DEAR AND TRULY HONORED FRIEND:—The pleasure which the request you made on me in your letter of the 14th of October, and how much I appreciate and value the same as an evidence of your unabated friendly regard for you old friend, I am unable to express.

Where in this country—yea! world—could I find a more honorable place for my name, than in connection with any thing to be said to the public, as profitable to its welfare, by you, always their best, truest and wisest friend? Highly honored shall I feel to find it there, and pleased will be my relations and friends in the old country, and a vast majority of my German countrymen who know me here, to see my name thus honored by their greatest man so shortly before our earthly life must, by the law of nature, close forever.

I have perused your manuscript, as far as in my hands, with the most intense interest, and am anxious to receive the remainder. The people will agree with me when I say. From my heart I thank my friend for his untiring labor, in trying to promote the welfare of our country; and that truth and logic will, here as well every where, cry Amen! to what you shall say.

Your true and respectful friend as ever,
M. D. G. PFEIFFER.

To HON. THADDEUS STEVENS.

5.—FROM MR. STEVENS.

LANCASTER, Oct. 24th, 1867.

DEAR DOCTOR:—I hereby acknowledge the receipt of the manuscript, and am obliged to you for your kindness.

Yours very truly,
THADDEUS STEVENS.

To DR. M. D. G. PFEIFFER.

"The Imperialist" newspaper has come out against the "Radicals," and in favor of the Democracy. What is called Democracy, and what is Imperialism, thus at last "lie down together."

Hear the new pronunciamento against Radicalism:

> "Congress is the Dictator. Give us a form of government like England's and a man like Gen. Lee for a Monarch. We want no trash to rule over us, as it has ruled and continues to rule."

WE observe that Gov. GEARY has appointed HON. DANIEL M. SMYSER, Associate Law Judge in the Seventh Judicial District. This office was created by act of the last Legislature, and will be ably filled by our former townsman. We presume, an election will be held in October for the full term.

THE Legislature of Indiana has passed an act abolishing Spring Elections, providing that all elections shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, of every second year.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPLETED.

The great event of the day was the completion of the Pacific railroad on Monday last. The road was commenced about three years ago, but has been pressed with an energy and success unparalleled in the history of railroad construction. At Promontory Summit, Utah Territory the walnut tie and silver rail were laid, and the golden spike was driven, which form the connecting link of the Central and Union Pacific Railroads, and the great inter-oceanic route is completed, binding the shores of the Atlantic and Pacific in indissoluble bonds.—The point of junction is 1,086 miles west of the Missouri river, and 690 miles east of Sacramento. The connection was made at five minutes past three o'clock in the afternoon, and while the last strokes of the hammer were falling the telegraph was simultaneously repeating them in all the large cities of the country. In New York the great event was commemorated by the firing of a salute and a jubilee service in Trinity Church. Mayor Hall sent a congratulatory despatch to the Mayor of San Francisco, and similar messages passed between the Chambers of Commerce in each city. In Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other cities and towns, similar rejoicings took place, Vice President Colfax delivering an address at Chicago upon the importance of the occasion. Baltimore alone seems to have allowed the event to have passed by unnoticed.

The road as completed extends from Omaha, by way of Salt lake City, to Sacramento. It connects at Omaha with two lines of road across Iowa to Chicago, and at Sacramento with a line for San Francisco. The distance from Omaha to Ogden, the point of junction, is 1,032 miles; from Ogden to Sacramento, 730 miles; so that the Pacific Railroad is 1762 miles in length.—San Francisco is 120 miles from Sacramento; Chicago is 494 miles from Omaha, and 804 miles from Baltimore. From Baltimore to Omaha, 1296 miles, the traveller can go by express trains in fifty-nine hours, or, say two days and a half. The time from Omaha to San Francisco is not fixed, but it will hardly extend over four days, so that it will be possible to make the trip from Baltimore to San Francisco, a distance of 3,178 miles, in six days.

THE 14TH AMENDMENT.—IMPORTANT DECISION.—RICHMOND, VA., May 10.—Chief Justice Chase this morning delivered an opinion on the appeal from Judge Underwood's decision in the District Court declaring null the sentence of Judge Sheffey, of the State Court, on the ground of Sheffey's ineligibility under the Fourteenth Amendment. The case was that of Cæsar Griffin, a negro, sentenced to the penitentiary for shooting a man. The Chief Justice read the opinion of the Court, holding that a State Government in Virginia had been recognized all during the war by Congress—first at Wheeling and then at Alexandria. The action of that Government in dividing the State had been recognized by the Federal Government, and Senators and Representatives elected by that Government had been allowed seats in Congress. It was under this Government that Sheffey had been appointed, and he was therefore a legal Judge as far as the State Government was concerned.

The question now came up whether, being ineligible, he was absolutely removed by the operations of the Fourteenth Amendment. The United States District Judge had decided that he was, but in the examination of questions of this sort great attention is properly paid to the argument of inconvenience, and a construction which must necessarily occasion great public and private mischief must never be preferred to a construction which will occasion neither in so great a degree, unless the terms of the instrument absolutely require such preference. The opinion here shows the anarchy which would be produced in a State by declaring past legal proceedings void.—It then considers the character and intent of the third section of the Fourteenth Amendment, which are declared to be punitive. The Fourteenth Amendment is not self-enforcing, and it needs the further legislation of Congress to enforce it. Two months after the judgment now being revised was delivered, Congress passed a joint resolution providing for the removal of all ineligible officers, showing that persons then holding office were held to be de facto officers, and also providing the means for their removal by the military.

The Court said that the Supreme Court had unanimously concurred in the opinion that a prisoner sentenced by a Judge de facto, though not a Judge de jure, could not be reached by habeas corpus.

The decision of the District Court was reversed, and Cæsar Griffin was remanded to the State authorities.

NASBY.

Mr. Nasby Tries an Experiment which Results not as He expected—The New Feeling towards the Nigger in Indiana.

POST OFFIS, CONFEDERIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky)
May 1, 1869.

The Dimocrisy uv the country are not in the happy condishen jest at this time that I cood wish. The Satrap at the head uv the Government, and his subordinit satraps at the head uv the Departments, hev not left ez many openins ez they ought, for our good, and the reduckshen uv the expenditoors uv the Government so persistently follered up is death to us. We want groanin, but it must not be uv dismist clerks and army offisers. Hed the Government put a garrison into every town ez we proffeside it wood, and cood we hev hed this summer, in addition, the potator rot, weevil, frost, locusts, floods, drouth, yeller fever and cholery, we mite hev stood some chance uv carryin the fall eleckshuns, for the people wood hev murmered. But ez long ez everything is smooth they laff at us when we insist upon a change and say, jeerinly, "Go up bald head!"

And in addishen to these calamaties we hev bin, or are jest about being, deprived uv the nigger wich hez bin our cheef and best holt. O, wat a backslidin there hez bin in this matter! O, wat a levelin there hez bin uv the walls uv the Dimocratic Zion! O, wat a goin back there hez bin on Dimocratic cardinal principles!

Feelin an oneasinis in my mind ez to the condishen uv the public mind in the Northern States on the adopshen uv the Fifteenth Amendment I determined to try a most hazardous experiment. I hed no fears uv Kentucky, none. Kentucky will git ready to adopt an idea ninety years after date, but I felt that I wantid to be satisfied ez to the soundnis uv the Ohio and Injeany Dimocrisy on this question.

To this end I determined to resort to strategy. I wanted to know percisely the feelins entertained in those States regardin the Afriken. I wanted to see with my own eyes the skornful look wich wuz formerly slung at Afric's sons; I wanted to here agin from Democratic lips that cheerin expression, "D—n the nigger, anyhow!" To accomplish this, I determined to personate a nigger, and in that guise to go boldly into Ingeany, announce myself ez an Afrikin nigger, determind to assert his rites, and note the result. I expectid, uv course, to be hooted and reviled. I expectid to be stoned and shot at, but I wood thereby kill two birds with one stun, viz: I wood disgust the Ingeanions with nigger ekwality, ez they wood see to wat it wuz leadin, and I cood exhibit my scars to Kentucky ez proof uv the stedfastnis uv their northern friends.

Wat I determine upon I do. In my younger days the feat involvin the possession of a horse, wich resultid in my bein tried for grand larceny, and convictid thereof by 12 prejoodist joorymen, and my incarcerashen from wich I wuz only releeved becoz my vote wuz needid to carry Pennsylvany for Bookannon, this masterpeece wuz conceeved and execooted in less than four hours. Unforchnitly, the courts wuz nearly ez expedishus, for four days thereafter I found myself in a Basteel.

I entered Ingeany ez a white man; I rejestered my name at a hotel ez a white man, but left it a nigger, wich transformashen wuz accomplished by means uv burnt cork, in my room; wich transformashen wuz uv double yoose, ez it enabled me to leave my hotel without likidatin my account, wich otherwise wood hev bin impossible. The country in wich I landid wuz a close one, the two parties bein nearly tied, neither fifty votes to spare, and there bein over a hundred niggers in the county, the Afrikin will, of the votes this fall, hold the balance of power.

With my face and hands blackt to the color uv nite, and assumin the character uv a preacher in the M. E. Afrikin Church, wich character I cood assoom, ez the burnt cork hid the acquired color uv my nose, I sallied forth boldly. Procoorin the locashen uv the leadin Dimocrat uv the country, wich wuz also the candidate for Sheriff, I sought him out and demandid a subscripshen for a Afrikin Church, wich I assertid I wuz desirous uv erectin in the east part uv the county, and uv wich I wuz to be pastor in charge, holdin myself at the time in sich a posishen that a kick cood do but little damage.

I WUZ NOT KICKT!

On the contrary quite the reverse! The gushin candidate kindly, blandly, and winninly begged me to be seated; he askt me, with tears uv intrest gushin from his eyes, ez to the prospex uv our Zion; ez to how many we numbered, male and female, adult and youthful, and whether or not we coodent indulge a reasonable hope that many more uv our color mightn't be indoost to leave the South and settle in the country.

Hopin to frighten him with nigger emigrashen, wich I hed heerd him denounce not a year before in onmitigatid terms, I anserd promptly that I wuz even then arrangin for the removal uv three thousand into the county.

"Thank the Lord!" sed he. "The admirashen I feel for the Afrikins—the respeck I hev for ther many qualities uv head and heart make me say, in the language uv the inspired writer, 'The more the merrier.' Here is my humble contribooshen to your church," sed he, handin me $10, "take it, and may the Lord bless its yoose. And next fall, after the Amendment is ratified, and yoor people git the rites wich wuz allus theirn, I trust yoo will remember at the polls them wich hev stood yoor friends, uv whom I am one."

Dumfoundid I staggerd over to another who was candidate for Treasurer, and to my surprise and horror he not only give me $10, but took me by the arm in a most affeckshnit manner, and insistid on takin me round and assistin me in raisin the amount I needid. Feelin that so far ez hatin the nigger was concerned, all wuz lost, I recklessly went with him, and reely did raise $160 cash off uv the candidates for the County offices, and one wich desires to okkepy a seat in Congris. Only wunst wuz this wretch non plussed. Turning a corner sharp we came upon suthin like fifteen gentlemen who wuz a workin on the streets with a ball and chain attached to em. The minit his eyes struck em he loosed his holt of me and shot ahead, keepin in advance till we had turned the next corner.

"Why this maneouver?" askt I, thankful that he had even that much uv originel Democratic feelin in him.

"My dear sir!" replied he, "You will excuse me, but the fact is I'm in a prekarious sitooashen. I'm a candidate, and its close. Them gentlemen with the ball and chain hev votes, and they hev a most crooil prejoodis agin those uv your color. We must humor their idisyncrosies, till we kin correct em. The time is comin, and I'm laborin for it nite and day, when it will all be removed. My deer sir, at the polls this fall will yoo and yoor flock remember the sacrificis I hev made and am makin?"

But I did come to greef. One uv these candidates insisted upon takin me, nigger ez he sposed me to be, home to his house to dinner. Injoodishus ez it wuz I went, and ther met my fate. He led me to a chamber, and without thinkin uv the burnt cork on my hands I undertook to wash em, wich I make a pint uv doin regerly twice a week. The first splash in the water showed me my blunder. Off come the color and I stood afore him a white man in disguise. He gave one look at my hands, and then the kickin! Ignominyusly he led me to the front door and one kick landid me on the sidewalk. Thank Heaven he coodent kick the $160 out uv my breeches pocket!

It is needlis to pursoo the disgustin subjick further.

In a nigger I wuz welcomed; when it wuz known that I wuz a white man I wuz ignominiously kickt! Is this the beginin uv a new order of things? Is the niggers to receeve all the smiles hereafter uv Dimocrats who want office? I fear me. No sooner is ther a probability uv this race gittin a vote than the Democratic leaders, forgittin ther proud Caucashen blood, forgittin the kifference in the anatomical structer uv the two races, and forgittin that the minit they give the nigger a vote, ther daughters must all marry niggers; they forgit all this, and cuddle with em the same ez they alluz hev with other inferior classes.

I returned home weary and sad, and silent. I hed nothin to say to Bascom; no cheerin words to sling at Deckin Pogram. They didn't know wat I went for nor how I went, nor shel they ever know. I am, however, satisfied that I must immejitly make a shift into suthin. My time here is rapidly drawin to a close—the shadders is closin round me, and the nite is at hand.

RE-CONSTRUCTION NEEDED.—The particulars of the killing of Joseph R. Holmes, a colored man and member of the late Constitutional Convention of Virginia, at Charlotte Court House, by a young white man named John Marshall, shows that it is one of the most premeditated, cold-blooded and dastardly murders that has been committed recently in the South. The colored Republicans contemplated having a meeting at the Court House, and quite a number of them assembled outside of the Court House enclosure. Holmes was in the Court House endeavoring to get a warrant for the arrest of Marshall, for shooting a colored man whom he was boasting he had killed that morning. As they desired to consult him about the arrangements for the meeting, they sent in for him to come out. He came, and, while in conversation with his friends a colored man came up and said: "John Marshall wants to see you." Holmes turned around, placing his back to the fence, and at the same moment John Marshall, his brother Griffin, one Boyd, a cousin of Marshall, and Mackey Morris came up to him. John Marshall addressed Holmes at once, and said: "I understand you are going to have me presented for shooting that nigger this morning—is that so?" Holmes replied that he intended to have all this shooting at colored men without cause put down, and he had a perfect right to present anybody who had violated the laws. One of Marshall's gang then struck Holmes, who started to run, when Marshall discharged his revolver at him, and the whole crowd followed his example, Holmes falling dead on the Court House steps. General Canby has sent an officer to investigate the affair.

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG AND RISING generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the palid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged.—The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular system, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears.—The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord.—No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.—He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

A GREAT REMEDY
THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.
Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar progress in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained.

It is the only safeguard and reliable remedy which has ever been prepared from the juice of the Pine Tree.

It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite.

It strengthens the debilitated system.

It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs.

It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air-passages of the lungs.

Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation.

It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted, with the positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure:—

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diptheria, &c.

We are often asked why are not other remedies in the market for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and other Pulmonary affections equal to Dr. L. Q. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial. We answer—

1st. It cures, not by stopping cough, but by loosening and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter collected about the throat and bronchial tubes, causing irritation and cough.

2nd. Most Throat and Lung Remedies are composed of anodynes, which allay the cough for awhile, but by their constringing effects, the fibres become hardened, and the unhealthy fluids coagulate and are retained in the system, causing disease beyond the control of our most eminent physicians.

3rd. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial, with its assistants, are preferable, because they remove the cause of irritation of the mucous membrane, and bronchial tubes, assist the lungs to act and throw off the unhealthy secretions, and purify the blood, thus scientifically making the cure perfect.

Dr. Wishart has on file at his office hundreds and thousands of Certificates, from Men and Women of unquestionable character who were once hopelessly given up to die, but through the Providence of God were completely restored to health by the Pine Tree Tar Cordial. A Physician in attendance who can be consulted in person or by mail, free of charge. Price of Pine Tree Tar Cordial $1.50 per bottle, $11 per doz. Sent by Express on receipt of price. Address, "L. Q. C. Wishart, M. D. 232 North 2d street, Philadelphia, Pa."

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, May 14, 1869.

☞ The Velocipede mania has reached Littlestown, a school having been opened in that place by parties from Gettysburg.

IN CHARGE.—Rev. M. J. ALLEMAN last week took charge of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Littlestown. He was warmly welcomed by the members of the congregation at the parsonage.

☞ Mr. GINTER, a workman at the mill of Joseph Lilley, in Mountpleasant township, had his arm badly crushed one day last week, by having it caught between two wheels.

ROBBED IN CHURCH.—On Sunday last, Jesse Nelson, a colored man, had his pocket book, containing $6 to $8 of money, stolen, whilst attending Sabbath School in the African M. E. Church, in this place. The thief has not yet been discovered.

STORE ROBBED.—On Friday night last, the store of Daniel Gulden, at Gulden's Station, five miles east of Gettysburg, was burglariously entered, and a small amount of money, and several yards of Cloth and other goods taken there- No arrests have as yet been made.

☞ JOHN N. BOYER of Straban township, sold to Dr. T. T. TATE a Colt, 13 months old, for $115. The following week Dr. TATE sold the same colt to ISAAC WOODLING of Selinsgrove, for $150. It is a large, fine and symmetrical colt, and was sired by the thorough-bred horse "Cashier."

STILL THEY COME.—The last Compiler announces three addional candidates for county offices, "subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention,"—Wm. C. Beck, of Reading for Register and Recorder; R. C. Swope, Hamiltonban, for sheriff; and Levi Schwartz, of Mountpleasant, for Director of the Poor. This makes thirteen already announced, with more coming.

BORDER DAMAGES.—A Convention has been called to meet in Chambersburg on Monday, June 1, at 1 o'clock, P. M., to devise measures by which concerted and effective action may be taken by all the border counties, in order that compensation for losses sustained may be secured. Our Franklin county neighbors are moving in the right direction, concertedly and in earnest. Would it not be well for the Adams county claimants to do likewise—at least take steps to be represented in the Chambersburg convention?

LAMP EXPLOSION.—A coal oil lamp exploded in the store of Wm. McSherry at White Hall, in this county, on the night of the 4th inst., about eleven o'clock. Mr. McSherry was about closing up his store, and turned the lamp down a little and then blew at it to blow it out, when the flame seemed to run down in the lamp, and it exploded, making a tremendous report, and scattering the burning fluid over the floor and counter. Mr. McSherry succeeded in extinguishing the flames without sustaining much damage.—Press.

ELECTIONS.—On the 1st inst., the following gentlemen were elected officers of the Littlestown Building Association:

President—Isaac Staub.
Vice President—Levi D. Maus.
Directors—Henry Klein, Henry Rahter, J. H. Miller, Jacob Hornberger, Simon S. Bishop.
Treasurer—J. H. Colehouse.
Secretary—J. A. Lefevre.

On the 4th inst., the following gentlemen were elected Directors of the Littlestown Savings Institution:—Joseph L. Shorb, Samuel Schwartz, Ephraim Myers, Moses Hartman, Samuel P. Young, Levi D. Maus and George Stonesifer.

Mr. James L. Lefevre is continued as Cashier.—Press.

EAGLE SHOT.—On the 3d inst., Leander R. A. Hummer, son of Peter Hummer, Esq., of Tyrone township, shot an Eagle, with white head and black cap, which measured 5 feet 11 inches between the tips of the wings, and two feet from the bill to the tail.

Mr. Hummer has also been successful in catching Weasels. On the 24th ult., he captured a female Weasel with seven young ones. His dog killed three of the latter. The other four, with the mother, were taken alive, and are still in Hummer's possession, having become quite tame. He has since captured three other Weasels, making eleven in all.

DR. MORRIS ON THE BEE.—Rev. Dr. MORRIS, of Baltimore, who by special appointment of the Board of Trustees, has been delivering a series of Lectures in Pennsylvania college on Natural History, delivered a public lecture in Christ's Church on Thursday evening last, before a large audience, on the Honey Bee, accompanied by diagrams and illustrations. We need scarcely say that it was an interesting lecture, the subject being one of peculiar interest, and besides Dr. MORRIS has rare capacity as a popular lecturer—few men having equal tact in so judiciously mingling abstract scientific truths with every-day illustrations and pertinent anecdote, as to relieve the tedium of the hour.

S. SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The Exhibition of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School in Agricultural Hall, on Friday night, was a decided success. The hall was crowed with old and young, and nothwithstanding that the exercises were protracted through three hours, they were judiciously varied, so as to keep up the interest to the close. The exhibition was repeated on Saturday night, with some changes in the programme, the attendance being again large. We should suppose the receipts netted a handsome sum to the school, and will go far to compensate the officers and teachers for the labor and patience requisite in getting up such an exhibition, besides gratifying the little ones.

EXCURSION.—Quite a number of young folks, on Tuesday evening, went to Hanover in a special train, with the ladies and gentlemen who had engaged to give a concert in that place, the excursionists filling two large passenger cars. The programme of the concert had been arranged to come off in Agricultural Hall in this place, but for various reasons it was abandoned, when an invitation was received to give the Concert in Hanover in aid of the Sabbath School of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. As the party was made up of some of our best vocalists and instrumental performers, of well known musical talent, we need scarcely say that the Concert was a success. The pieces vocal and instrumental, had been selected with much taste and judgment, and their execution being faultless, elicited high commendation from proficients in music. The only draw-back was in the utter inadaptedness of the Hall, in which the concert was held, for musical purposes. Acoustics were evidently not thought of in its construction, and the consequence is a deadly flattening effect upon the voice, which is most annoyingly felt in the finest and most artistically executed passages. The Hall was well filled, and the audience apparently well pleased.

At the close of the exercises, a number of the Gettysburg visitors repaired to the residence of Mrs. NAIL, where an elegant entertainment had been provided by some whole-souled ladies, and which took the party by surprise. After spending a pleasant hour in social converse, the excursionists returned to the cars, reaching Gettysburg before 12 o'clock. The evening was pleasant—the greeting at Hanover cordial—the Concert a "treat"—the officers of the Railroad accommodating and courteous—all combining to make the excursion unusually enjoyable.

SODA WATER.—E. H. MINNIGH, Chambersburg street, next door to the Keystone House, has started his Soda Fountain for the season. If you want a delicious glass of Cream Soda Water, call at Minnigh's.

RAILROAD MEETING.—At a recent meeting of the bondholders of the Gettysburg R. R. Company, held in pursuance of the call recently published, on Saturday last, JACOB LOTT, Esq., of Cumberland township, was called to the chair, and Col. JOHN H. McCLELLAN, of Gettysburg, was appointed Secretary.

After a general interchange of opinion, it was on motion resolved that a Committee of fifteen be appointed to take in charge the interests of the creditors and bondholders generally, with authority to call a subsequent meeting of bondholders when in their judgment necessary.

The Committee consists of the following gentlemen:

George Swope, Esq., Gettysburg, Chairman:

Wm. Bittinger, Dr. J. W. Hendrix, David M. Myers, Frederick Diehl, John H. McClellan, M. Eichelberger, Wm. Douglass, John Musselman, Jacob Benner, Dr. E. G. Fahnestock, Henry J. Stahle, Abraham Mickley, Abraham Krise, John Houck.

On motion, adjourned.

JACOB LOTT, Chr'n.
JOHN H. McCLELLAN, Sec'y.

RAILROAD MOVEMENTS.—We notice by the Washington papers that a delegation consisting of Mr. Loatz, President of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company, and other citizens of Frederick, Md., were in the former city last week, to consult prominent citizens in regard to building a railroad line from Washington to Lake Erie, by way of Frederick. Resolutions were adopted by the meeting approving of the proposed line between Washington and Frederick, and in favor of securing a charter from Congress authorizing its construction. A Committee was also appointed to solicit subscriptions for an experimental survey from Frederick to the Northwest. There is some difference of opinion as to the route from Frederick North. The present line laid down by the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line road looks to Littlestown as the point of connection. Emmitsburg, however, is moving to have the line located to that place, with ultimate extension to Gettysburg, Harrisburg, &c., while another interest favors striking the Pennsylvania line further west, in the direction of Buffalo and Lake Erie.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—Among the local bills passed at the last session of the Legislature, is one entitled:

"An act to regulate medical practice in the counties of York, Adams, Perry, Juniata, Indiana, Elk, Bucks, Northampton and Lehigh." It imposes a fine of from one hundred to five hundred dollars upon any person who shall commence or continue in the practice of medicine or surgery who is not a graduate of some chartered medical college, or who has not been in continuous regular practice for eight years. It also requires transient pracitioners to appear before the clerk of the courts, and prove that the above conditions have been complied with, and also to take out a license for one year by paying a license fee for the use of the county, of two hundred dollars.

All non-graduates who have not been already in regular practice eight years will have to suspend, while in future none but graduates can commence business. Sharp that, and doubtless intended to do away with quacks—but how about graduates without brains? A diploma ought to guaranty the possession of brains, but unfortunately it don't.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—A Good Templars Lodge was organized at Bendersville, Jan. 25th, with ten members, since which time it has increased gradually, and now, at beginning of 2d quarter, numbers 54 members. This Lodge is composed of good material and the membership are earnest in the work of reform. The following are the officers installed by T. U. Heinard D. G. W. C. T. at the beginning of the present quarter.

W. C. T., A. G. Peters; W. V. T., Miss Sallie Bender; W. S., Miss Lizzie Wright; W. T., John H. Peters; W. O. G., Michael Irvin; W. I. G., Miss Kate Peters; W. M., G. A. Cline; W. F. S., Amos W. Greist; W. A. S., Charles Longsdorf; W. D. M., O. J. Heinard; W. C., Rev. J. B. Young; W. R. S., Ruth Wills; W. L. S., Ella M. Irvin; R. W. C. T., H. N. Minnigh.

APPOINTMENTS.—Mr. SCULL, the newly appointed U. S. Assessor for this district, took possession of the office on yesterday.—We understand that he has determined to retain the four existing sub-districts in the county, and has appointed the following as his assistants: John M. Krauth, Esq., of Gettysburg for the first; William King of New Oxford, for the second; William S. Cart, of Menallen, for the third; and Cyrus G. Beales, of York Springs, for the fourth.

In the retirement of J. C. NEELY, Esq., of Gettysburg, present Assistant Assessor, we but echo the general judgment in expressing our sense of his capacity, fidelity, and efficiency. He has administered the law impartially, and fairly; has been watchful, and active; and carries with him the respect of all classes of the community.

[Communicated.

MR. EDITOR:—I noticed a few days ago, that the building committee of the Springs Hotel, is putting on a Gravel Roof. I think it a wise selection, for a building of that kind, and for the purpose it is used—shower baths are desirable to the boarders of the Hotel. It will save the trouble and expense of erecting a bath house, as you can have a shower bath after every heavy rain, after the roof has been on the building one year or less.

I know that five or six of the same kind of roofs were put on houses in New Oxford—all of which are being taken off and tin roofs substituted, I have been informed that Mr. J. S. Gitt has taken off a nearly new Pulastic Slate Roof and is putting on a tin. Time will soon show if the Architect understood his business when he recommended a Gravel roof on the large Hotel.

GETTYSBURG, May 6, 1869.

AN INQUIRY.

MR. EDITOR:—Will some of your correspondents have the kindness to inform me who first introduced among us the use of Plaster of Paris as a fertilizer?

The story is often told of Dr. FRANKLIN writing in plaster, on the grass, the, "This is Plaster of Paris," and thus introducing it, by the superior growth of the herbage on which it had been placed, to the notice of farmers. This anecdote has been so frequently repeated, and believed by its numerous hearers, that it was painful to see it contradicted in a late number of a Southern paper.

Can you, Mr. Editor, or any of your friends throw any light on this point? Did Dr. Franklin do this thing or in any way promote the use of plaster, or write at all on agriculture? Please reply to this inquiry, and give authorities, and oblige your friend. A FARMER.

On all below.

Gone to her heavenly rest,
From sin forever free,
Pillowed in Jesus' breast,
Oh, God, with thee!

No more we'll hear at morn
Her feet upon the stair—
Death has our loved one borne
To world's more fair.

Thank Heaven, her feet have trod
But brief the shores of time;
Now she is with her God
In Heaven's own chime.

Then why not dry the tear?
No more for Mary shed;
She's happier there than here,
By Jesus led.

THE MORE, THE MERRIER.—People used to talk about high prices as something inseparable from big stores. Oak Hall has done much to do away with that foolish prejudice by giving a live example of the Largest Clothing House in the State selling goods at the lowest prices. And men are coming to understand that the truth is just the reverse and that the houses doing the most business and so requiring the largest accomodations are the ones who can and do sell the cheapest. In this as in everything else, except courtship and marriage, "the more, the merrier."

The merriest place in town is Wanamaker & Brown's, S. E. corner Sixth and Market Streets. 1t

NISHWITZ'S IMPROVED MOWER AND REAPER.

The strongest, lightest draft, most compact, simple and perfect Machine ever offered to the public.

The undersigned having taken the Agency for Nishwitz's Celebrated Improved Mower and Reaper, invites the attention of the Farmers of Adams county to it, as the very best machine now in market. Its general construction, embracing every necessary point to constitute a perfect machine, is so simple that the most inexperienced person can readily understand it. It consists of a less number of bolts, pieces and parts than any other machine, and is better adapted to all kinds of Reaping and Mowing. A thorough examination and trial will show this beyond all doubt. Farmers desiring to purchase a first class machine, at low price, will do well to call and examine it. Price $125; Reaper Attachment $35.

ALSO—THE

for Wells, Cisterns, &c.,—the best in market—and the stock being made of cucumber wood the taste of the water is not affected.

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will commence any one of their superior merits over all others, in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper.—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet in grain and four feet eight inches in grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to no other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye patent.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Deardorff, Sen.,

J. H. SHIREMAN'S

REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines

Michael Fiscel,
Moses Hartman,
Joseph Wierman,
Ulrich Jacobs,
Jacob Hartman,
Jacob Laman,
Stephen Gettier,
Mr. Sterner,
Mr. Linn,
J. R. Hershey
B. B. Woodburn,

with others, too numerous to mention

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

AN ESSAY ON GRAPE GROWING.

Read before the West Jersey Fruit Growers' Association, Feb. 18, 1869.

BY WILLIAM PARRY.

To the President of the West Jersey Fruit Growers' Association:

Having been appointed to open the discussion on the subject of pruning and training the grape vine, I submit the following:

Grape growing in West Jersey has been attended with various results for many years past, which have led to the conclusion that it is not a reliable crop and some have maintained that our soil and climate were not well adapted to it. But the occasional heavy crops which have been produced, are sufficient to prove that the defect is not in the soil or climate, but in the want of a proper system of pruning or manuring.—We find no difficulty in growing one or two large crops of grapes and some inferior crops, when the vines, being exhausted, run out, are neglected, and the culture of grapes abandoned.

A few sample vineyards may serve to illustrate this matter.

About 30 years since, Henry M. Zollicoffer, of Philadelphia, had planted in Camden county, New Jersey, eight or ten acres in vineyard, on light sandy soil, good truck land, quick in its action to yield up what nourishment it contained to the growing crop, but soon reduced unless constantly supplied with manure. The vines grew well and produced one full crop of fruit, fine large bunches, well developed and ripened, which were greatly admired by visitors and all who saw them.

That large crop of grapes took most of the strength from the ground, so that there was but a poor growth of wood for a future crop. Next year there were grapes enough set upon the vine, but about the time they should have ripened they commenced rotting, showing clearly there was something wanting to fill out the crop. The next year it was even worse, and after that they were abandoned as of no value.

Some years after, Mr. Fletcher, of Delaware, had a grapery which yielded abundantly for several years. They were planted close and pruned short, and seemed for a while to be successful; but eventually the soil becoming exhausted, they gave way, failing to ripen the fruit,—were dug up, sent to Philadelphia, and sold at auction at high prices, on the credit of the crops which they had borne.

In the year 1844 I planted one eighth of an acre with Isabella, Catawba and Elsingborough; set posts and wires to support the vines. They grew finely and produced several fair crops, the best of which was 1250 lbs., or at the rate of five tons per acre, which sold at 6 cents per pound, and brought $75, or at the rate of $600 per acre. But that was too heavy a draft upon the vines and soil; they gradually diminished afterwards, until being of little value, were removed.

Now, so far from being discouraged by the observation of these facts, we should look upon them as landmarks to guide our future operations. We could not raise half that quantity of corn or other farm crop, year after year, upon the same ground, without replenishing the exhaustion annually, with an application of manure.

I have now a small vineyard in bearing, embracing several varieties, one row of a kind, which have borne three good crops of fruit, and made the last year a better growth of well-ripened wood than ever before.—The ground a sandy loam with clay subsoil, was ploughed deeply with a Michigan or double mould board plow; the plants were set eight feet distant in rows six feet apart, and but one cane was allowed to grow the first year. Trellises were erected by planting posts eight feet long, set two feet deep and eight feet distant in the rows, with one rail (2 by 3 in.) on the top of the posts, and another fastened two feet from the ground, with wires extending from the lower to the upper rail, about ten inches apart, to support the young vines.

In the spring of the second year after planting, the cane which grew the first year was cut off even with the lower rail, and only two buds allowed to grow, one in each direction.

In the spring of the third year each of these canes were cut off, about three and a half feet long, and one cane allowed to grow up each wire, the laterals or side branches being removed as they made their appearance during the summer.

In the spring of the fourth year the top of every other upright was cut off even with the top rail, and allowed to produce fruit, the alternate canes being cut short near and by the lower rail, from the base of which a strong cane is thrown up to produce fruit the following year, when the one that had fruited last should be removed, and allow a new growth from its base to produce fruit the next year; and so on alternately removing the wood that has borne fruit, to give place for a new growth. The object in pruning being to control the growth of the vine, so that its strength shall be properly divided between ripening the present crop of fruit and producing a strong, healthy growth of wood with well developed buds for fruiting another year. Hence the error of taking an over crop of fruit at the expense of a proper growth of wood.

The above method of training and pruning answers well, is simple, and an ordinary hand can do the work after once showing.

Having about forty varieties of hardy grapes now growing, the larger portion of them have done well with the above treatment. But the Concords and Hartford Prolifics have yielded most money in the market.

In the year 1866 the row of Concord vines produced at the rate of six tons of grapes per acre, which took an undue portion of their strength, leaving but little for the new wood, which made a feeble growth and not well ripened, and in consequence yielded no fruit of value in 1867. But a heavy coat of stable manure and judicious pruning replenished strength to make a fine growth of wood, which gave a full crop of perfectly ripened grapes in 1868.

The Hartfords, ripening early, sold best, bringing twenty-five cents per pound, and yielded at the rate of nine hundred dollars per acre.

We apply manure every year, same as for potatoes and farm crops,—could hardly expect to gather much fruit if we put nothing on to produce it.

The demand for table grapes is increasing faster than the supply. Twenty years ago my crop of grapes from the one-eighth of an acre above referred to, sold in Philadelphia at six cents a pound. Last year my crop averaged fifteen cents in the same market—and one salesman informed me that he sold from his fruit stand ten thousand dollars worth of grapes last fall.

A MAINE horseman says: "Let me inform humane men and hostlers, and all who hold the rein, that the way to cure balky horses is to take them from the carriage and whirl them rapidly around till they are giddy. It requires two men to accomplish this, one at the horses' tail. Don't let him step out.—Hold him to the smallest possible circle.—One dose will often cure him; two doses are final with the worst horse that ever refused to stir."

GOOSEBERRIES.—The native varieties are the only ones to be relied upon. The Houghton, or American Seedling, is one of the best.

POTTAGE of Secretary Fish's children are said to be sardines—little fishes done in oil.

A CERTAIN CURE
AND PREVENTIVE OF DISEASES.

The ZINGARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician DR. CHEOPSUS, who after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zingarini Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production, the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with the other valuable properties of which the ZINGARI BITTERS is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness, &c., &c.

In the PREVENTION and CURE of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country, will testify. AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

THE GREAT

Invigorator and Restorer
OF THE
Vitality of the Stomach.

Prepared from Pure Vegetable Materials.

Pure Tonics and the most Pleasant Aromatics.

This invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia and General Debility of the system is offered to the public, after a fair trial of its merits, with entire confidence that it will command their approval. It has been submitted with the materials which compose it, to practising Physicians—among others to Dr. M. D. G. PFEIFFER, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, pronounced it a Remedy which would not fail to show its salutary effects, when properly administered, in cases of Dyspepsia, springing from old age and debilitating effects of serious inward diseases—weakening, and at last destroying the nervous power of the stomach itself—and therefore entitling it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator."

Dr. W. J. McCLURE, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his opinion:

NEW OXFORD, Dec. 30, 1868.

Mr. JOHN BUSBEY.

Dear Sir:—At your request I have examined "The Great Invigorator," prepared by you, and the formula from which it is prepared. It is composed of some of the most powerful vegetable tonics and most pleasant aromatics known to our profession, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it in Chronic cases of Dyspepsia, and in all cases of Indigestion resulting from debility of the Stomach. Believing that, if properly used, it will be of incalculable benefit to the suffering of our race, I subscribe myself,

Yours, very respectfully,
W. J. McCLURE, M. D.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

The Great Desideratum of the Age.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

Coe's Column.

COE'S COUGH BALSAM!

This long tried and popular Remedy is again called to the attention of the public. As often as the year rolls around, the proprietors annually make their bow to the people, and remind them that amongst the many things required for the health, comfort and sustenance of the family through the long and tedious months of winter, Coe's Cough Balsam should not be forgotten. For years it has been a household medicine—and mothers anxious for the safety of their children, and all who suffer from any disease of the throat, chest and lungs, cannot afford to be without it. In addition to the ordinary four ounce so long in the market, we now furnish our mammoth family size bottles, which will, in common with the other size, be found at all Drug Stores.

FOR CROUP,

The Balsam will be found invaluable, and may always be relied upon in the most extreme cases.

WHOOPING COUGH.

The testimony of all who have used it for this terrible disease during the last ten years is, that it invariably relieves and cures it.

SORE THROAT.

Keep your throat wet with the Balsam—taking little and often—and you will very soon find relief.

HARD COLDS AND COUGHS

Yield at once to a steady use of this great remedy.—It will succeed in giving relief where all other remedies have failed.

SORENESS OF THE THROAT, CHEST AND LUNGS.

Do not delay procuring and immediately taking Coe's Cough Balsam, when troubled with any of the above named difficulties. They are all premonitory symptoms of Consumption, and if not arrested, will sooner or later sweep you away into the valley of shadows from which none can ever return.

IN CONSUMPTION,

Many a care-worn sufferer has found relief and to-day rejoices that her life has been made easy and prolonged by the use of Coe's Cough Balsam.

IN SHORT,

The people know the article, and it needs no comment from us. It is for sale by every Druggist and Dealer in Medicines in the United States.
